Committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children

We are looking for an enthusiastic member of staff who is committed to supporting young people in a vibrant and demanding environment. You will provide individual support to pupils in our Behaviour Support Room (C4) and work with small groups engaged in learning programmes. The successful candidate will demonstrate effective organisational skills suited for this fast-paced role within the Levenshulme High School community and undertake first aid training. The post holder will be responsible for the accurate maintenance of SIMs data relating to behaviour and the implementation of sanctions. A working understanding of SIMs is desirable although a willingness to undertake training. The post holder will work closely with staff, parents and other outside agencies. The successful candidate will join a committed team within this outstanding, multi-cultural school for girls. This post offers many opportunities for professional development in a secure and supportive environment.
